About MCDOT

The Morris County Division of Transportation (MCDOT) is part of the Morris County Department of Planning & Development.

- MCDOT serves the county through regional transportation planning. The division secures federal and state funds for road, bridge, railroad, and other transportation projects. MCDOT monitors traffic and development and directs efforts toward the best use of transportation resources to benefit the region. MCDOT composes the Circulation Element and Bicycle and Pedestrian Element of the Morris County Master Plan. The division publishes the Morris County Bicycle and Pedestrian User Guide and Transit Guide. Additionally, MCDOT supervises two county-owned freight rail lines, runs a county-wide traffic count program, conducts Walkable Community Workshops, and produces an annual list of road construction projects in the county. The division has conducted a pilot Safe Routes to School Program in Wharton. MCDOT strives to be at the forefront of transportation planning.
